A REINVENTION CONVERSATION WITH FINCANTIERI

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Julie Sweet: I am very excited to be joined today by Pierroberto Folgiero, CEO of Fincantieri. Now Pierroberto, this is a very exciting time for Fincantieri. Why did you choose to partner to make this evolution in your business?

Pierroberto Folgiero: So we wanted a technology that could be upgradable over the year. We wanted something that could be open to third party applications. It was very important for us to have also the reputation of Accenture. We are so happy to join forces with you.
